THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) to (c) There were seven Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSS) under consideration of Planning Commission as on 30th September, 2001 for approval. Their status is given in the enclosed Statement.

Statement

Current Status of pending Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSS) with Planning Commission for approval

Sl. No.	Name of the Scheme And the Ministry/ Department	Status as on 30th September, 2001	Present Status
1.	Critical Antierosion Works in Coastal and other than Ganga Basin States— Ministry of Water Resources	The Scheme was circulated to Member of Full Planning Commission for obtaining their approval on 15.1.2001. It was discussed in a meeting chaired by Deputy Chairman, Planning Commission on 29.1.2001. Finance Minister has approved this scheme. External Affairs Minister approved the scheme in principle with the following observations: (i) that it would be preferable that guidelines for works to be taken up by the States are laid down. (ii) that Central Water Commission may lay down priorities for works, but States be allowed to sanction projects.	The schemes at Sl. No. 1 & 2 of Ministry of Water Resources were discussed in a meeting (on 12.11.2001) between Shri Som Pal, Member, Planning Commission and the Secretary, Ministry of Water Resources, wherein it was decided that it will not be proper to start new CSS for the remaining few months of the Ninth Plan and hence it was decided that MOWR shall submit the revised proposals for these schemes during Tenth Plan.
